Action plan for the academic session (2019-2020)

Academic Aspects:

1. Facilitating the organization of departmental or interdisciplinary seminars and workshops represents an integral component of the faculty development process, akin to invited lectures or specialized talks.
2. Acquisition of additional literature aligned with the CBCS curriculum is imperative to augment the academic resources available.
3. The imperative to actualize the fulfilment of all substantive teaching positions, in accordance with the proposed plan, underscores the commitment to bolstering the academic faculty.
4. The introduction of new undergraduate program course in Sociology in 2019-20 session, with a capacity for 80 students, signifies a strategic academic expansion.
5. Augmenting students' intellectual pursuits through the provision of an array of seminars and diverse extracurricular activities is paramount.
6. Initiating career counselling programs dedicated to fostering comprehensive career development for students exemplifies a proactive approach.
7. Implementation of the Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) in the central library is pivotal for streamlined book accessibility.

Infrastructural Aspects:

1. Implementation of a comprehensive drinking water solution catering to the needs of all students, faculty, and staff members is essential.
2. Expansion of the college infrastructure through the provision of additional classrooms and the incorporation of CCTV camera facilities is imperative.
