

Seminar on Modern Trends in education

The Department of Education of Plassey college had organized a seminar on Modern Trends in Education on 1st March 2019. Professor DP Sikdar of University of Kalyani was invited as Guest in Chief and Dr Nita Bandopadhyay of The Department Of Physical Educatin of University of Kalyani, acted as Guest in Honour. At the Initial stage of the seminar, they delivered their valuable speeches and gave a clear conception of the new trends in education. A special attraction of the seminar was the presentation of the papers with PPT and without arrangement of various state level , national and international seminars.

PPT by the students in a well organized manner. A total of 37 students presented their papers. At the end of the programme the Students requested their HOD for further

